

CALL FOR COMMUNITY PARTNERS JOIN ALIGHT TO UNLOCK A FRESH START FOR HUMAN TRAFFICKING SURVIVORS

You can help the human trafficking survivors you serve connect to high-quality, free legal services to resolve their various life challenges! As a community service provider or advocate, you may be working with a volume of survivors in Colorado who are in financial need of free legal services across Family Law, Criminal Law and Civil Law.

About You

A community service provider or advocate in Colorado who needs to connect the human trafficking survivors you work with to free legal services. You may be working with at-risk communities, including domestic violence / sexual assault organization, crime victims, LGBTQIA+ individuals, day laborers, runaway youth, refugees and others.

About ALIGHT Legal Needs Matching Program

To support community service providers and advocates working with human trafficking survivors meet the diverse legal needs of your clients, we offer a way for you to connect to free help from the legal community quickly and easily. You can make a difference for your clients by participating in The ALIGHT Legal Needs Matching Program. ALIGHT is a Colorado-based 501(c)(3) nonprofit and accredited pro bono legal services provider.

Below are the high-needs legal areas in CO. Survivors request advocacy, counsel and/or representation on matters such as:

- Family Law: custody and visitation, divorce, security issues involving survivor and/or family members
- Criminal Law: criminal records, criminal defense, criminal justice advocacy
- Civil Law: identity change, fraud, tenant rights, employment, debtor rights, benefits

Be part of the solution! Get started by emailing program@alightnet.org

How It Works

You screen clients for human trafficking and financial need, post requests on the app and support survivors' engagement with the legal process.

Pro Bono Attorneys contribute their skills by assisting on discrete, high-impact legal