FREE LEGAL CARE FOR SURVIVORS OF HUMAN TRAFFICKING

MOBILIZING JUSTICE PROGRAM

1. ABOUT ALIGHT

ALIGHT operates a Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT) Solve-award-winning program that provides legal care to survivors of human trafficking.

With a network of over 1,500 pro bono attorneys, ALIGHT offers free, specialized and trauma-informed support across a wide range of legal areas at a critical point in survivors' recovery.

2. HELPING YOU HELP SURVIVORS

You're doing everything you can to help survivors rebuild their lives. But legal barriers can limit that progress. We're here to change that.

CHALLENGES YOU SEE EVERY DAY

The legal impacts of trafficking don't end when survivors escape. Most can't afford attorneys—leaving survivors stuck when they:

- Are denied jobs or housing because of criminal records tied to their trafficking
- Can't save money or access loans because their identity was stolen and credit was destroyed
- Struggle to protect their children without full custody

HOW ALIGHT HELPS

ALIGHT connects survivors to a vetted network of pro bono attorneys who remove these legal barriers, ensuring survivors can move forward and recover.

Our tech-powered platform matches survivors with attorneys in 20+ legal areas, including criminal record clearing, credit repair, custody and more.

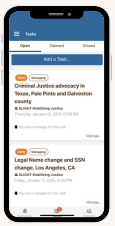

This support strengthens your work and opens doors for survivors that would otherwise stay shut.

OUR PROCESS

A survivor and their advocate reach out to ALIGHT for screening.

ALIGHT posts the survivor's legal request on our app.

Attorneys receive targeted notifications and compete to fulfill the legal request.
